RUSSIA'S GENOA DEMANDS.

INSPIRED REPORT

RESTORATION OF SHIPPING SOUGHT.

BERLIN, April 4.

According to a seemingly inspired communique the Russian demands at Genoa will be freedom for shipping everywhere, recognition of the Soviet flag, free entry for Russian ships into all ports, restoration of Russian steamers abroad (being about 60 per cent. of Russia's pre-war mercantile fleet), compensation in kind for Russian steamers lost while in the service of foreign states, and Russian participation in any control commission of the Dardanelles.

CHICHERIN INTERVIEWED.

BERLIN, April 5.

M. Chicherin, the Soviet Foreign Commissary, who is going to Genoa, interviewed by the Vossische Zeitung, expressed pleasure at Mr. Lloyd George's statement in the House of Commons on Monday. The most important task before the conference, he said, would be reduction of land armies. He eulogised the British Premier's ideas regarding general peace and his reconstruction programme.

EXPORT DUTY INCREASE REJECTED.

THE HAGUE, April 4.

In the Chamber in the course of the debate on the East Indies tariff amendment bill, the Colonial Minister announced that the special tax on mineral oils would be abolished at the end of the year.

A motion demanding immediate abolition was carried by 18 votes to 16.

Finally a bill which provided an increase in the export duties of 25 per cent. was rejected by 19 to 15 votes.

FRANCE NOT MILITARIST.

FINANCE MINISTER'S STATEMENT.

PARIS, April 4.

Speaking to the Press Association, the Finance Minister, M. Delasteyrie, stated that France's military expenditure had been reduced by £100,000,000 within the last two years, which was the best refutation of the mischievous allegations about France's imperialistic tendencies.—Havas.

The Chairman of the United States Shipping Board, giving evidence before the congressional committee which is enquiring into the administration of the ship subsidy bill, declared that if the United States was to be powerful on the seas it behoved both parties to support the bill.

A mail train from Calcutta to Punjab was derailed near Madhupur on the East Indian Railway. An engine and six carriages which overturned were smashed to pieces at the bottom of a 50-foot embankment.

LONDON, April 4.

Presiding at the annual conference of the Association of British Chambers of Commerce in London, Sir Shirley Benn, M.P., described the German industrial boom as a sham. He favoured trade with Russia if that country would guarantee to honour her debts.

REMARKABLE ELECTIONS.

LONDON, April 4.

Labour was heavily defeated in the elections for boards of guardians and district councils in the provinces by the Conservatives and Liberals combining as anti-wasters. In many cases not a single Labour candidate was returned, though they contested all seats. This was most noteworthy in the Notts coalfield, Southampton, the Newbiggin mining centre, and Northumberland. A similar combination of progressives, Independents and Municipal Reformers has been made against Labour in the elections for 29 boards of guardians in London to-morrow.

POPE'S ELECTION STOVE.

From the chimney of this stove curled the eagerly-awaited puffs of white smoke announcing to the world that a new Pope had been chosen. The final ballots, unalloyed with straw, gave forth the momentous white puffs. To create the black smoke, which signalled "no election," wet straw was cast into the stove with each block of indecisive ballots. This stove has been used for centuries for this purpose.

"TRUTH, JUSTICE, PUBLIC SERVICE."

HONGKONG, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1922

ART AND "THE SWASTIKA."

Art is long, and human energy is a fleeting thing. We are not minded to be dispirited by the colour of complaining that tinges the last issue of the local "literary" magazine, published yesterday. Those in Hongkong who should write, will write, Swastika or no Swastika. Literature, like murder, will out. It seems to us that there are some few misunderstandings to dissipate. In letters there are rules, which are a means to an end and only that. The rules of prosody and the rules of prose are discipline, wholesome discipline; they are not laws as of Medes and Persians. The amateur, the dabbler, is apt to let them fill in his picture more space than the real, true end of letters requires. Spirit is more than technique, though the latter must not be ignored. The one object of letters is the expression and presentation of experience, especially of emotional or mental experience. There must be truth and beauty of experience before there can be true and beautiful expression. It is to be presumed that some young poets appreciate feet before feelings, and that some young authors achieve style before the character to be expressed by that mode. It is as necessary that the poet should first have loved and suffered as that the preacher should first have sinned and repented. This is the indispensable preparation and training for exposition. One must know to tell. Before letters must come life, with ripened experience and developed character. The second-hand culture derived from letters produces more letters, but these are less full blooded than their models. They may embody toothsome ink-horn words, and be correctly ornate with all the graces of studied technique, but they lack stamina, and cannot live. So much bigger is life than letters, that we find too often the men who have lived so that they could help us disdaining the duty of revelation, leaving it to the pernickety devotion of those who know how to say but have nothing to say. So life teases us, whether we love life, or letters, or both. One poet learns in suffering without learning how to teach in song. Another learns how to teach in song what he has not yet learned. The round poles and the square holes still baffle us. In our local publication there is less fault to find with the average technique—which is really a high average—than with the paucity of ideas, of actual thoughts and emotions. Much nonsense is talked about literary genius, most of which is a matter of preparation. It might be a genius for living, the fruit of an eager, daring, reckless grasping at a full life, and then—"emotion remembered in tranquillity." But all great literature must have great experience for parent. The spirit must have hungered and thirsted, been exalted and depressed, that is to emit the great cry of the heart that will touch us and move us. From the sheltered life can come only parasol verses. Besides, the Swastika is debarred from complaining that in so short a life it has not reached the height of achievement of its editor's ambition. Literature knows nothing of departmental discretions or conventional refinements or snobbish squeamishnesses. Its field is all life—and the Swastika put up fences and closed gates. He who would ascend Olympus may not wait for Mrs. Grundy, nor try to keep in step with the hobbling gait of the Philistines. Literature is strong meat. It is not for babes, either to eat or to produce. There will yet be a literary magazine for Hongkong—perhaps in connection with the Book Club—and it will succeed. This is prophecy.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Rev. Howard West Mowll, M.A., who is now on the professorial staff of Wycliffe College, Toronto, has been nominated by the Archbishop of Canterbury to be Assistant Bishop under Bishop Cassels in the diocese of Western China.

Sir William Matthews, K.C.M.G., a past president of the Institute of many great harbour works in many parts of the world, who died January, 8, left £101,115, of which £88,956 is net personalty. The testator gave considerable sums for the poor of Penzance.

A Chinese living in an unnumbered matshed at Chungshawan was about to close his door last night when two men armed with revolvers entered while two others kept watch outside. Making off up the hillside, he left the thieves to rob his sister of a gold bangle valued at $6.

The engagement is announced of Keith Willesforce Tribe, of H.M. Consular Service in China, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Tribe, of Stoke Bishop, Bristol, to Grace, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Riseley, of Clifton, Bristol. The wedding will take place shortly at Clifton.

About 10 p.m. on Monday the No. 1. "boy" employed at Fanling Golf Club House was on the way to the residence of Mr. Kerr to receive his order, when he was set upon by two men and stabbed in the face. The men who attacked him got away. It is believed that the attack was carried out as revenge on the "boy" for refusing to go on strike recently.

The former Russian cruiser "Askold," which in days gone by was well known on the China Station, and particularly at Shanghai, left the Clyde on February 23 in tow of a Dutch tug for Hamburg, where she will be broken up. More recently the ship took part in the Gallipoli operations, protecting our forces between Cape Hellas and Suvla. She has five long and close set funnels, and on her arrival at the Dardanelles was immediately christened by the British soldiers and sailors "The Packet of Woodbines." During the Russian revolution she came to Britain, reaching the Clyde after an adventurous voyage.

A correspondent of a London evening paper says that at his club the other day the conversation turned on the disadvantages of living in the tropics, and one of the speakers poohpoohed the idea that life was shortened thereby. "I know scores of people," he declared, "who could refute such an allegation. There are three in particular, old friends of mine, who are living in London at this moment—all distinguished engineers, who have spent many years of their lives in India. One is Sir Guilford Molesworth, a nonagenarian, "the Nestor of Indian railway engineers"; he second is Sir Bradford Leslie, born in 1838, and pupil of the great Brunel; the third is Ernest Benedict—now in his eighty fourth year—who also was associated with Brunel. All three enjoy fairly good health."

SPECIAL CABLE.

PRINCE'S THANKS.

FAREWELL MESSAGE TO MALAYA.

[China Mail SPECIAL.]

SINGAPORE, April 4.

In a farewell message to "Malaya," the Prince expresses heartfelt appreciation of the welcome from all classes and races. He will always retain the happiest memories of the visit.

LAST "SWASTIKA."

HONGKONG'S LITERARY QUARTERLY.

The third number of The Swastika, Hongkong's literary quarterly, has been published—for the last time, it is announced. The untimely demise of the paper is unfortunate because the third number is certainly the best. Indicating an adequate supply of local talent, its 50 odd pages of prose and verse hold great promise for the new venture should time prove true the prophecy sounded in to-day's China Mail leader.

In the 'Dialogue" which forms the symposium for this issue, the Editor, Bibliophilus, the Business Man, the Bolshevic, the Aesthete and the Scholar, each advances his own reason for the paper's failure—it was too respectable, it had no soul, material was scanty, its reviews were bad or not bad enough, personal antipathy, and general laissez faire.

The Editor, who blames "a combination of circumstances," writes the following farewell note:—

It is with much regret that we announce that in this number the Swastika makes its final farewell to Hongkong—under our charge, at all events. We are all the more sorry because in No. III we have found traces of stronger literary support, and begin to believe that to another four numbers or so might see the paper firmly established. Why then you will ask, do we drop it? The chief reason is that the work is too much for any one man, with no staff to help him. The financial question too is difficult, as, for twenty who praise us, about one copy is sold. The guarantor system has worked well but it hardly seems one that can continue indefinitely. It may be that the paper will continue. But we, who now vacate that seat of thorns sometimes called the editorial chair, must take this opportunity of expressing our thanks to our Contributors, to our Guarantors, and to our Readers. Our thanks are due also to Mr. C. Gerken for the hard work he has done on the business side of the paper. And finally we must refer to the kindly offices of several of the staff of our Printers. Having to deal with amateurs, they went out of their way to make our path easy. If the result of their work is as much appreciated by the Public as by Ourselves, they may possibly require a larger size in hats in the future.

To which the following suggested epitaph was added:—

Here lies that most presumptuous wight
Who sought to tempt Hongkong to write.
A man who such a thing would try
Undoubtedly deserved to die,
So what more is there to be said?
Nothing, except "Thank God, he's dead."

With everybody talking Prince, thinking Prince and dreaming Prince, it would be a thankless task at the moment to attempt to weigh the merits of individual contributions, the more especially as the opinions of the writers are not lightly to be shaken and readers are constantly being adjured to use their own judgment. In this issue of The Swastika, which includes contributions over many familiar initials and several new ones, they will find ample material for the purpose.

BOUND AND GAGGED.

IMPUDENT STAIRWAY ROBBERY.

About 1.30 p.m. yesterday, Wong Fook Pui, the shroff of the Spanish Procuration was descending the back stairs of No. 3, Pratt Avenue, where he had been to collect money, when he was met half way down by four men ascending. As they passed him, one man suddenly put a handkerchief over his eyes, while another pressed a lump of cloth into his mouth. Having thus effectively prevented him from crying out, the men bound him to the stair railing. They then relieved him of two leather purses containing $743 which he had collected during the day for the Procuration and decamped. Wong remained in his helpless position for sometime before he was released by Mr. Hyde the occupier of one of the flats in the house.

THE PRINCE'S VISIT.

HONGKONG WAITS READY.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS.

Bedecked with bunting and ready with illuminations for display by night, Hongkong stands ready to extend to His Royal Highness a welcome which will be in consonance with the warm-hearted loyalty of its residents. To-day the finishing touches were being put to the preparations begun weeks ago for to-morrow's historic event.

Members of the executive committee assembled in the Pavilion this morning to go over the final details and the special chairs in which the Prince and his staff are to be borne were brought down from Government House for a preliminary rehearsal. People who turned up to get a glimpse of the Prince's chair were disappointed to discover that its silken trappings had been left behind at Government House but still there were the bearers, resplendent in red tunics with white embroidered crowns and Manchu hats with red tassels, to be seen. With Mr. Eric Rice deputising for the Royal "fare" the bearers were taken along part of the route and it was impressed upon them that they must walk slowly so that everyone may see the Prince.

TO-MORROW'S WEATHER.

PROSPECTS UNCERTAIN.

"What sort of weather are you going to give us to-morrow?" was the query a China Mail reporter put to the director of the Royal Observatory (Mr. T. F. Claxton) over the telephone this afternoon. "Well" he replied "I can only give you to-day's official forecast which predicts fresh East winds with overcast weather." Mr. Claxton went on to explain that the slight drizzle experienced to-day was produced by cold air coming down and mixing with warmer air. "It is quite likely" he added "that this mixing process will have finished by to-morrow morning. If so we shall not have a drizzle but if the mixing has not finished the drizzle will continue."

TO-MORROW'S PROGRAMME.

8 a.m.—"Renown" arrives—Japanese firework display.
9.10 to 9.30—Official calls paid.
10.—H.R.H. lands at Blake Pier and proceeds to Pavilion for the reception.
After reception H.R.H. proceeds to Government House to inspect boy scouts and girl guides.
1 p.m.—Lunches at Government House.
2.30 p.m.—Meets ex-servicemen and mercantile marine Officers at Government House.
4 p.m.—Proceeds at Causeway Bay for polo (weather permitting).
8 p.m.—Official banquet at Government House.
9.20 p.m.—Motors to Blake Pier and boards "Stanley" to view illuminations.
Returning ashore H.R.H. watches Fish procession from special stand near Statue Square.

LOUNGE SUITS FOR THE RACES.

Mr. Eric Rice said to-day that world had been received that lounge suits would be de rigeur for the race meeting.

POLO ALTERATIONS.

H. R. H. has asked that the polo match be arranged for 4 p.m. instead of 4.30. Owing to an accident Captain Metcalfe will not be able to play and his place in the Prince's team will be taken by Lieut. Comdr. Bowlby.

A MISTAKE.

Through an inadvertence, the official programme now on sale sets out that following the presentation of Officials, at Blake Pier the Prince "proceeds to the Pavilion, via Pedder Street and Chater Road." This is, of course, incorrect. We have been asked to make it clear that H.R.H. will proceed to the Pavilion along the Praya, turning into Statue Square near the Queen Victoria Statue.

BALL ARRANGEMENTS.

Recently it was announced in connection with the ball that cloakrooms would be situated in the Pavilion. This has now been cancelled, arrangements having been made for ladies and gentlemen attending the function to unrobe in the Law Courts. Full details will be found in the notice issued by the C.S.P.

FILMING THE PRINCE.

REMARKABLE HONGKONG PICTURE.

A picture that later Hongkong generations will study with envy, the film record of the Prince's visit to the Colony will be screened here almost before His Royal Highness has sailed for Japan. Thanks to the enterprise of Hongkong Amusements Ltd., this unique picture showing the principal events of the visit will be screened at the Coronet Theatre the moment it is ready. From the moment the "Renown" arrives to the moment it departs expert cinema photographers will be on the alert to film every interesting incident. Among other notable scenes taken will be several of the wonderful illuminations promised for the night.

DAYLIGHT FIREWORKS.

TO-MORROW'S PROGRAMME.

The elaborate programme of daylight fireworks which has been arranged by the Japanese community to celebrate the arrival of H.R.H. will begin at 9 o'clock to-morrow and is to last for an hour. The fireworks will be set off from three lighters moored in the harbour opposite Statue Pier, about 500 yards out.

ASSAULT REPRISAL.

BAMBOO POLE AND CHOPPER.

The injured man seized a chopper and slashed his assailant on the head and wrists. Both men are now in hospital.

The Belcher Street murderer, Ho Fat, who ran amok in a brothel killing one woman and injuring four others with choppers, was hanged in the Victoria Jail early this morning. An inquest was held later and the usual verdict returned.

"FRIGHTFUL TRAGEDY."

MARRIED COUPLES' BITTER QUARREL.

A Chinese married couple was summoned before Magistrate Lindsell this morning for having assaulted another married couple.

The female defendant said that some time ago they lived together in the same house. Last year the complainants' daughter took her baby out and brought it back dead. There was a row, and the families separated. A couple of days ago the female complainant met her in the street, and renewed the old grudge by slapping her face with a slipper. The witness snatched the slipper and struck her assailant in the eye. The male complainant then joined in the assault on her, and when her husband came to the rescue, he was assaulted also.

The female complainant denied that her daughter had anything to do with the death of the defendants' baby. Soon after the baby died, she alleged, the female defendant poisoned her daughter and she died also.

Magistrate: This is a frightful tragedy. Did you report the alleged murder to the police?—No. I was new in Hongkong and did not know what to do.

I suppose you don't know what the police are in the streets for?—Yes.

Both couples were bound over in personal bonds of $50 each to keep the peace for six months.

WATER RETURNS.

The water return for April 1, shows a storage of water in the reservoirs on the Island of 898.57 million gallons as compared with 1,257.67 million gallons for the same time last year. Consumption on the Island during the month of March amounted to 215.63 million gallons, or 19.3 gallons per head of population per day, as compared with 216.83 million gallons and 24.8 gallons for the same period last year. There was a constant supply of water in all districts during March of 1921 and 1922 with the exception of the district west of Eastern Street where intermittent supply by rider mains was resorted to. On the mainland, the storage of water on April 1 was 155.65 million gallons as compared with 254.74 million gallons for the same time last year. Consumption during March amounted to 48.10 million gallons or 11.5 gallons per head of population per day, as against 43.70 million gallons and 13.1 gallons for the same period in 1921. The Government Analyst's report shows that the water was of excellent quality.

GENOA CONFERENCE.

LONDON, April 4th.

The debate proved uneventful. Mr. Clynes moved the amendment of the Independent Liberals, approving the holding of the Genoa Conference and regretting the limitation of the subjects to be discussed there, but declining to express confidence in the Government in regard thereto. He urged necessity of the revision of the Peace Treaty and immediate action regarding Russia.

Sir Donald Maclean supported the amendment.

Mr. Bonar Law supported the resolution and in doing so, generally warmly endorsed Mr. Lloyd George's policy. He stated that in his opinion a refusal to recognise the Soviet might strengthen it against possible change from inside. He would, only recognise it de jure when the Soviet actually established civilised relations with the outside world.

Lord Robert Cecil urged the employment of the machinery of the League of Nations at Genoa, and condemned the exclusion of the reparations question at Genoa.

Mr. Chamberlain winding up the debate said the Genoa Conference was not going to create a new world, but might enable the world to take another step forward.

The amendment was rejected by 379 to 84 and the motion was adopted by 372 to 94.

PARIS, April 4th.

The Chamber of Deputies motion mentioned in yesterday's issue expressed confidence in the Government's ability to safeguard France's rights and interests at the Genoa Conference. As editorials in the French Press emphasise, this will invest Poincaire with adequate authority at the conference.

JAPAN'S CHINESE POLICY.

LONDON, April 4th.

The Times draws a disturbing conclusion from the passage of Japan's new naval policy, wherein it is stated that every precaution must be taken by extending connections with neighbouring regions to assure supplies. The Times thinks this indicates an intention of developing economic relations with China and perhaps exploiting her in order to compensate for restrictions imposed at Washington on naval expansion by all participants in the conference, and considers that increased Japanese pressure upon China would be a negation of the whole spirit of the Washington agreements.

FRENCH FOREIGN POLICY.

PARIS, April 4th.

The Chamber of Deputies expressed confidence in the Government's Foreign Policy by 484 votes to 78.

BOLSHEVIK DEPREDATIONS.

PARIS, April 4th.

The newspaper La Presse states that in order to obtain funds the Bolsheviks are arranging to sell treasures from the Academy of Arts, the Alexander Museum and other collections.

According to despatches received from Russia a series of collisions occurred at Petrograd between the populace and the Bolshevik Militia. These collisions were in consequence of the Bolshevik attempts to confiscate church treasures.

FIRES IN PETROGRAD.

PARIS, April 4th.

A message from Helsingfors states that a series of fires has broken out in Petrograd. These fires involve railway stations, bank premises and harbour buildings. A Bolshevik newspapers attributes the fires to incendiarism by Social Revolutionaries.

GHANDIS FOLLOWERS.

BOMBAY, April 4th.

Meetings are being held almost daily in Bombay urging universal observance of the so-called National Week, commemorating the inauguration of Gandhi's Swaraj Campaign of April, 1921.

The week begins on April 6th and concludes with the All-India Hartal.

The All-India Congress Committee also recommended that the eighteenth day of every month should be a day of prayer and sacrifice, and further that one day's pay shall be contributed to the Swaraj Fund.

GERMANY AND RUSSIA.

LONDON, April 4th.

The Berlin Government has agreed to surrender to the Bolsheviks the old Russian Embassy which is situated in the Unterdenlinden and which has hitherto been vainly claimed by the Russians.

The Germans are to receive certain concessions regarding the old German Embassy at Petrograd which was wrecked and fired by the mob at the beginning of the war.

ROYAL HONEYMOON.

PARIS, April 4th.

Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles have arrived.

BRITISH BUDGET.

LONDON, April 4th.

The British Budget will be introduced on May 1st.

LENIN'S ILLNESS.

LONDON, April 4th.

A message from Helsingfors states that it is understood that Lenin's illness is cancer in the throat.

Proper food, an abundance of [illegible] plenty of outdoor exercise will keep your bowels regular. When they fail you should take Chamberlain's [illegible]. They cause a gentle movement of the bowels and are easy and pleasant to take.

MANCHESTER WEEKLY MARKET REPORT.

Messrs James F. Hutton & Co., Ltd., Manchester, reported as follows on Wednesday, March 1:—

The improved demand for spot cotton remains the principal feature of the cotton markets. Liverpool sales have not been quite up to last week's level but still shew an appreciable increase on those of previous weeks and have again been the chief factor in maintaining prices with very little change from those we last reported. Beyond that however, no progress has been made, and although more optimism has been evident so far as the immediate future is concerned, confidence appears to stop at this. The futures markets are still very quiet and much uncertainty prevails as to the possibility of the recent slight improvement in the textile trade being continued. It becomes very evident in fact that only a definite extension of forward business can put life into the markets and strengthen values. When this does occur however, there is no doubt that prices of the raw material will be the first to respond. The state of the Manchester market shews very little change: there has been a very fair general enquiry for cloth but the amount of business actually transacted is still disappointing. Sections of the market only have benefited to any appreciable extent, and of these chootie makers have probably been amongst the more successful. Prices are practically unchanged. The large numbers of idle spindles and looms remain a check against any upward movement in the producing section. So long as this state of affairs exists neither spinners nor makers can materially improve their position as competition to secure the business offering is too keen; and a large volume of trade will be needed to restart all machinery on full time. Unfortunately orders are as yet small in comparison to normal requirements and buyers do not purchase anything beyond pressing needs. There is no disposition whatever to go far ahead, early shipment being generally as essential as low prices. China has again been in the market, principally for staples, but less has resulted. India enquiry persists, but it cannot be said that anything beyond a patchy business has been done. Calcutta has probably been most active in chooties and light goods.

LAWN TENNIS.

H.K.C.C. TENNIS.

YESTERDAY'S MATCHES.

The best match yesterday in connection with the above tournament was between M. W. Lo and Wong Po-kei in the open Championship singles. Lo won a strenuous game by 7–5, 2–6, 6–2, 6–4. Excellent tennis was witnessed by a large gathering of spectators. Lo was superior in rallying, but Wong had the advantage in service, so that the players were evenly matched. The first two sets ran into 12 and 8 games respectively, and each player took one. Lo played faultlessly in the third set and took it for 6–2. The fourth set provided all the excitement. Both players were playing sound tennis at this stage, and it was a question of which could outrun the other. Lo won a tiring set by 6–4 and took the match. He now qualified for the third round in which he would meet the winner of the second round match between S. A. Rumjahn and S. H. Ismail, which is scheduled for to-day.

Full results:—

ASSOCIATION MEETING.

At Victoria Barracks yesterday evening, a meeting of the Hongkong Football Association was held under the Chairmanship of Mr. J. McCubbin. All the Clubs were represented.

A recommendation of the Referees' Board, that Mr. Grant "Tamar" be suspended from taking any part in football matches under the jurisdiction of the H.K.F.A., for dangerous play in the "Tamar" v. United match played on March 1, was confirmed.

A charity match was arranged for Easter Monday, to help the funds being raised in the Colony in aid of the dependants of the Submarine H42 disaster. The match to be, Services v. The Rest. The following sub-committees were appointed to select the teams:—Services: Master-Gunner Watson, R.Q.M's., Tyldesley and Yeoman of Signals Morris. The Rest: Messrs. McTavish, J. Rodger and Wheeler.

A meeting of the League followed and the King's were awarded the points for the match with "Titania" on March 25, when the latter failed to turn out.

The "Curlew" claimed the points against the Police, the latter failing to play on two successive Saturdays. The meeting approved, and the Secretary was instructed to write to the Police to enquire whether they were turning out again this season.

A protest by the United A. C. against South China "A" for playing two first division men, without the sanction of the League Management was referred back, as the United had not stated the names of the South China players whom they had protested against.

It was decided to finish the League before Saturday, April 22, as that day was set aside for the two exhibition matches on the Club ground. The winners to play the runners-up in each division, or in the event of a tie for the championship, a replay to take place instead.

KOWLOON THEATRE.

THIS EVENING'S SPECIAL DANCE.

Hard on the heels of last night's immensely successful thread and needle dance, the Kowloon Theatre holds a special dance this evening when the popular jazz band from the American liner "Wenatchee" will supply the music.

With a capable orchestra and excellent floor what more could any dancer want?—Only a refreshment bar (especially in this humid weather) and the Kowloon Theatre now provides one.

Last night's thread and needle dance, as already mentioned, proved a most enjoyable event. Ladies who brought cotton and needle were given crinkly paper in various charming shades and with this they improvised fancy costumes. Gentlemen who brought the necessary paper fasteners were handed strips of red paper to make themselves hats. When clever heads and deft fingers had evolved many quaint creations, the happy throng was marched in procession round the gaily decorated hall. The judge Mrs. Gourdeau wife of the representative of Union Australia who is in the Colony, then presented three silver prizes to the ladies responsible for the most original costumes and two to the most enterprising gentlemen. The costume made by the first prize winner was specially admired, both for its artistic effect and deftness. The dancers then took the floor and with the orchestra in excellent form continued the revels until a late hour.

There will be no public performances at the Kowloon Theatre, it is announced, during the two days of the Prince's visit, Thursday and Friday. "The Coast of Opportunity" a romance of Mexico will be screened on Saturday.

CORRESPONDENCE.

THE RECENT INTIMIDATION.

[To the Editor of the "China Mail."]

Sir,—In reply to the letter from Mr. P. Y. Lo in the South China Morning Post of 1st April I did not say the so-called strike was possible only under the stress of intimidation: I said the men left through intimidation. I did not suggest dispensing entirely or at all with the Chinese Police, and cannot assist Mr. Lo in estimating the number of intimidators employed.

Mr. Lo asks the proportion paid to British workers in normal times for the work referred to, and I regret to say that this work would cost less in Britain and very much less in Germany; the time for completion, and which is equivalent to cost, being also less in both countries than in Hongkong.

Did Mr. Lo know me he would not have written his last paragraph; as a matter of fact I think little of a day's fast and recently, owing to what Mr. Lo calls sympathy strikes had no bread to butter, a condition to which Mr. Lo himself and certainly the workers here must be reduced if work be driven from Hongkong by further increased cost of production.

Yours, etc.,
W. S. BAILEY.

Hongkong, April 4, 1922.

N.Y.K. FARES.

[To the Editor of the "China Mail."]

Sir,—In view of certain incorrect news having been reproduced in the local Press about the N.Y.K. proposing to cut the passenger rates between London and Marseilles, and ports east of Suez by 20 per cent., we beg to inform you that the true position is as follows:—

This Company has decided, commencing with "Mishima Maru" sailing from Yokohama on June 9 and with s.s. "Katori Maru" from London on June 10, to recommence the issue of round-trip tickets between ports east of Port Said (inclusive) and the ports of Marseilles, London and Antwerp, good for two years from the date of embarkation to date of re-embarkation for return passage on the basis of 1½ fares, or in other words, 25 per cent. reduction on the regular tariff fare for return passage.

The publication of the above in your valuable columns will much oblige.—We are, Dear Sir, Yours faithfully,

Nippon Yusen Kaisha.

Callus? Peel It Off Quickly!

Nothing On Earth Like "Gets-It" For Corns and Calluses.

A spot of thickened skin on the bottom of your foot which so often makes walking an agony, is as easily removed by wonderful "Gets-It" as any hard or soft corn anywhere on your toes. Look at this picture.—A few drops of "Gets-It" did the work. The callus comes loose from the true flesh. No irritation whatever. You peel the callus right off just like a banana skin—peacefully, painlessly. "Gets-It" does the same thing to any corn, without the use of sticky plasters, irritating salves, greasy ointments or troublesome tape. There is no trouble—no knife, no scissors to use. "Gets-It" is used by millions, because it is common sense, and it never fails. Try it, prove it.

"Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at all chemists and stores. M'f'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, U. S. A.
